Graduate School Administrative Policy GSAD-906 – If an extended absence (>3 weeks) is needed, or when a Short-Term Absence unexpectedly extends longer than three weeks, the graduate student should make the request known to his/her adviser and Graduate Program Head as promptly as possible. If the expectation is that the coursework for the semester cannot be completed by the deferred grade deadline, the student will drop all courses for the current semester and be approved for an Extended Absence with Course Drops. An Extended Absence with Course Drops is recorded in the student information system as a Leave of Absence

Students: Prepare a written reason for the request in consultation with your adviser and/or committee chair. Provide written documentation with this form to your Graduate Program Head.

Semester Withdrawal

I elect to withdraw from the Pennsylvania State University with the understanding of the following:

- I am withdrawing from all my credit courses as of the date this form is received by Graduate Enrollment Services.
- I acknowledge that withdrawing from the semester results in a “W” symbol being recorded as the course grade(s) on my transcript.
- My student record will remain active during the Extended Absence, and I will not need to complete a Resume Study application to enroll in future courses.
- In the case of a summer-only withdrawal, fall registration will not be cancelled and a Resume Study application is not necessary.
- I understand that if I have borrowed federal or University loans during my career at Penn State, and I withdraw, even for just one fall or spring semester, that I will be required to complete Exit Counseling at studentloans.gov in order to fulfill University Policy and federal regulations. If I do not complete Exit Counseling, registration and transcript holds may be placed on my academic records.
